

AFFINIA
HEALTHCARE®

Inspired by the Patients We Serve

Opiate Addiction: MAT Program

Affinia Healthcare has extended its substance abuse services to include the Medically Assistant Treatment (MAT) program with the use of Suboxone¹.

The program consists of the following:

10-Day Intensive Outpatient Treatment • Clinical Evaluation and Assessments • Complete Physical • Ongoing Physician/Medical Visits • Groups Sessions • Individual Counseling • Case Management Services • Family Support Sessions

Treatment Location:

Affinia Healthcare
1717 Biddle Street
St. Louis, MO 63106

Treatments are Monday through Friday and extended hours on Wednesday

CALL TODAY: 314-814-8606

Medicaid and Private Insurance Plans Accepted
Gateway to Better Health Accepted (co-payment required)

¹Suboxone is a combination drug comprised of two substances: Buprenorphine- historically used at low doses to manage mild to moderate levels of pain; and Naloxone - an opiate antagonist used to reverse or eliminate the effects of opiates in someone's system.